

2017 - TRUMPLED TIMES?

The UK is in for a rough ride with ‘Brexit’. Forget the US!

As predicted individual earnings in the UK are now falling in light of taxation, inflation and forthcoming rises in interest rates which will put paid to the aspirations of many.

The European Project provided us with the opportunity to play ball in a united Europe for the benefit of future generations and to reap the benefits of economic prosperity and a reduced prospect of internal or external conflict. What next?

Well, for now we rely on politicians to sort us out and provide us with renewed vision. But at Fearon & Co nothing changes and it is business as usual as it has been since 1825. What a relief!

On the plus side and on an international level there has been continued demand for Fearon & Co’s specialist legal services across the spectrum and from as far away as Ghana and Mexico! In 2017 our key focus has again been on Probate work – acting for foreign Personal Representatives in the administration of English Estates and advising on Inheritance Tax implications. Also in resealing Grants of Representation. On the litigation side the enforcement of judgments obtained in other jurisdictions remains a service in frequent demand, and contested Probate work keeps us busy too.

As always, a huge thanks to all of our lawyer contacts in Ireland, Northern Ireland, New Zealand, Australia, Channel Islands, Isle of Man and worldwide for supporting us over the past year and we look forward to meeting up with many of you in 2018.

Merry Christmas!

A. John Phillips
